2013

25 • 26 OCTOBER
KRAKÓW • POLAND

Celebrating the 25-year anniversary of the ERC, the Kraków Outcomes Symposium will provide a refreshing change to previous conferences with increased focus on practical hands on advanced skill training, educational workshops, small group work and meet the expert sessions. Try your hand at the international CPR competition, seize the opportunity to network with international experts and present your research to key opinion leaders. Kraków promises to be the most exciting ERC symposium yet!

The 2013 ERC Symposium will be hosted at the Auditorium Maximum of the Jagiellonian University in Kraków-Poland, a unique city with a long and glorious history, rich heritage and architectural beauties.
